HOLOBOX DISPLAY

3D holographic displays offer a new and unique way of creating marketing activations, as you can promote your products in a completely unique way with seemingly “free-floating” 3D holograms that explain details, features, and unique selling points.

Whether you are looking to elevate your in-store marketing in retail, stand out at a crowded expo, or create a unique brand activation, our range of award-winning 3D holographic displays are built to generate attention that resonates with today’s consumer, who increasingly lives beyond the reach of classic advertising.
